Mrs. Wilkins,

I'm so very sorry I didn't have you as my teacher eighteen years ago. I've really enjoyed being in your class this year. I only wish it could last forever. You have been an inspiration to me. I've never known a teacher so sweet as you are. Please stay that way. Don't forget me.

Love always,

Senior History

At the beginning of the year, 1945, a big happy class of thirty-three started on their difficult climb up the Ladder of Success, which promised for us the wonderful achievement "Graduation." Our home-room teacher for the year was Miss Cates.

On the step of our ladder, many of our classmates fell along the way. We had enrolled that year twenty-eight with Miss Margaret Sharpe acting as our home-room teacher.

John Robert Watkins, Jim Wood, Bobby Swink, John McDonald, Carson Leach, Dorothy Stout, Melba Dean Keck, Frances Riley, Betty Jean Cheek, and Margaret Byrd represented our room on the basketball team.

During the year a Glee Club was Organized. All of our musical minded crew fell into singing. Our Glee Club turned out to be quite successful.

As we climbed on to the third step of our ladder, we lost several more members of our class. There were only twenty-two enrolled.

During the year, the Juniors and Seniors went on a sight seeing tour to Raleigh. We had the pleasure of meeting Governor Cherry.

We entertained the Seniors at a Junior-Senior Banquet at the Alamance Hotel on March 1st. It was carried out in Hawaiian style with our Sophomore girls acting as waitresses. Reverend Brown was the delightful speaker of the evening.

At last! We have reached the last step of our ladder. We have twenty-one enrolled in our class with Mrs. Helwig as home-room teacher. We are hoping to go out into the world to become successful men and women. With us, we can carry the happy memories of our high school days. Memories, none of us will ever forget.

Class Will

State of North Carolina, Alamance County, Haw River

We, the Senior Class of Haw River High School, of the above State and County in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-eight, being of sound mind and having a high standard of character, do make this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I: We will and bequeath to our beloved faculty our good grades, and their sweet memories of us.

ARTICLE II: To the Junior Class we will our Senior privileges, our dignity, and the honor of publishing a 1949 Indian. To the Sophomores we will our school loyalty, hoping they will always maintain this school spirit. To the Freshmen we will all past note-books to be sold at auction and the excellent record we have made.

ARTICLE III: The various members of the class of '48 do bequeth as follows:

Rena Lindsey wills her love for Pontiacs to Marie Ledford.

Arthur Makin wills his dating ability to Leon Boggs.

Betty Jean Cheek wills to Evelyn Humphries her slogan, "Never take a Dare,"

Harold Goss wills his bewitching "line" with which he captivates most of the fair ones to Joe Allen,

Leone Bradley wills her shyness and quietness to Doris Beauford.

John Robert Watkins wills his ability to tell corny jokes on economics class to Ruby Lamb.

Peggy Coble wills her "Giggles" to Peggy Fogleman.

Dot Stout wills her "happy-go-lucky" style to Gladys Ray.

Bobby Jobe wills his skill of "getting by" without studying to Polly Baker.

Margarett Byrd wills her good attention on class (while not asleep) to Jimmie Best.

Arlies Phillips wills her extreme height to Mary Sharpe.

Deannie Keck wills her "Come-hither" eyes to Janet Bradley.

Anne May wills her "speechless tongue" (only on class) to Mae Baker.

Pug Simpson wills her art of chewing gum on class and "getting by" with it to Betty Lou Fulcher.

Margaret Baker wills her class loyalty to J. W. Sharpe.

Betty Mae Allen wills her high standing in the Senior Class to anyone who can take her place.

Wanda Dixon wills her place in the Senior Class to Myra Cates.

Louise Humphries wills her blank mind to Esquriedo Terrell.

Frances Riley wills her basketball ability to Mary Ella Watkins.

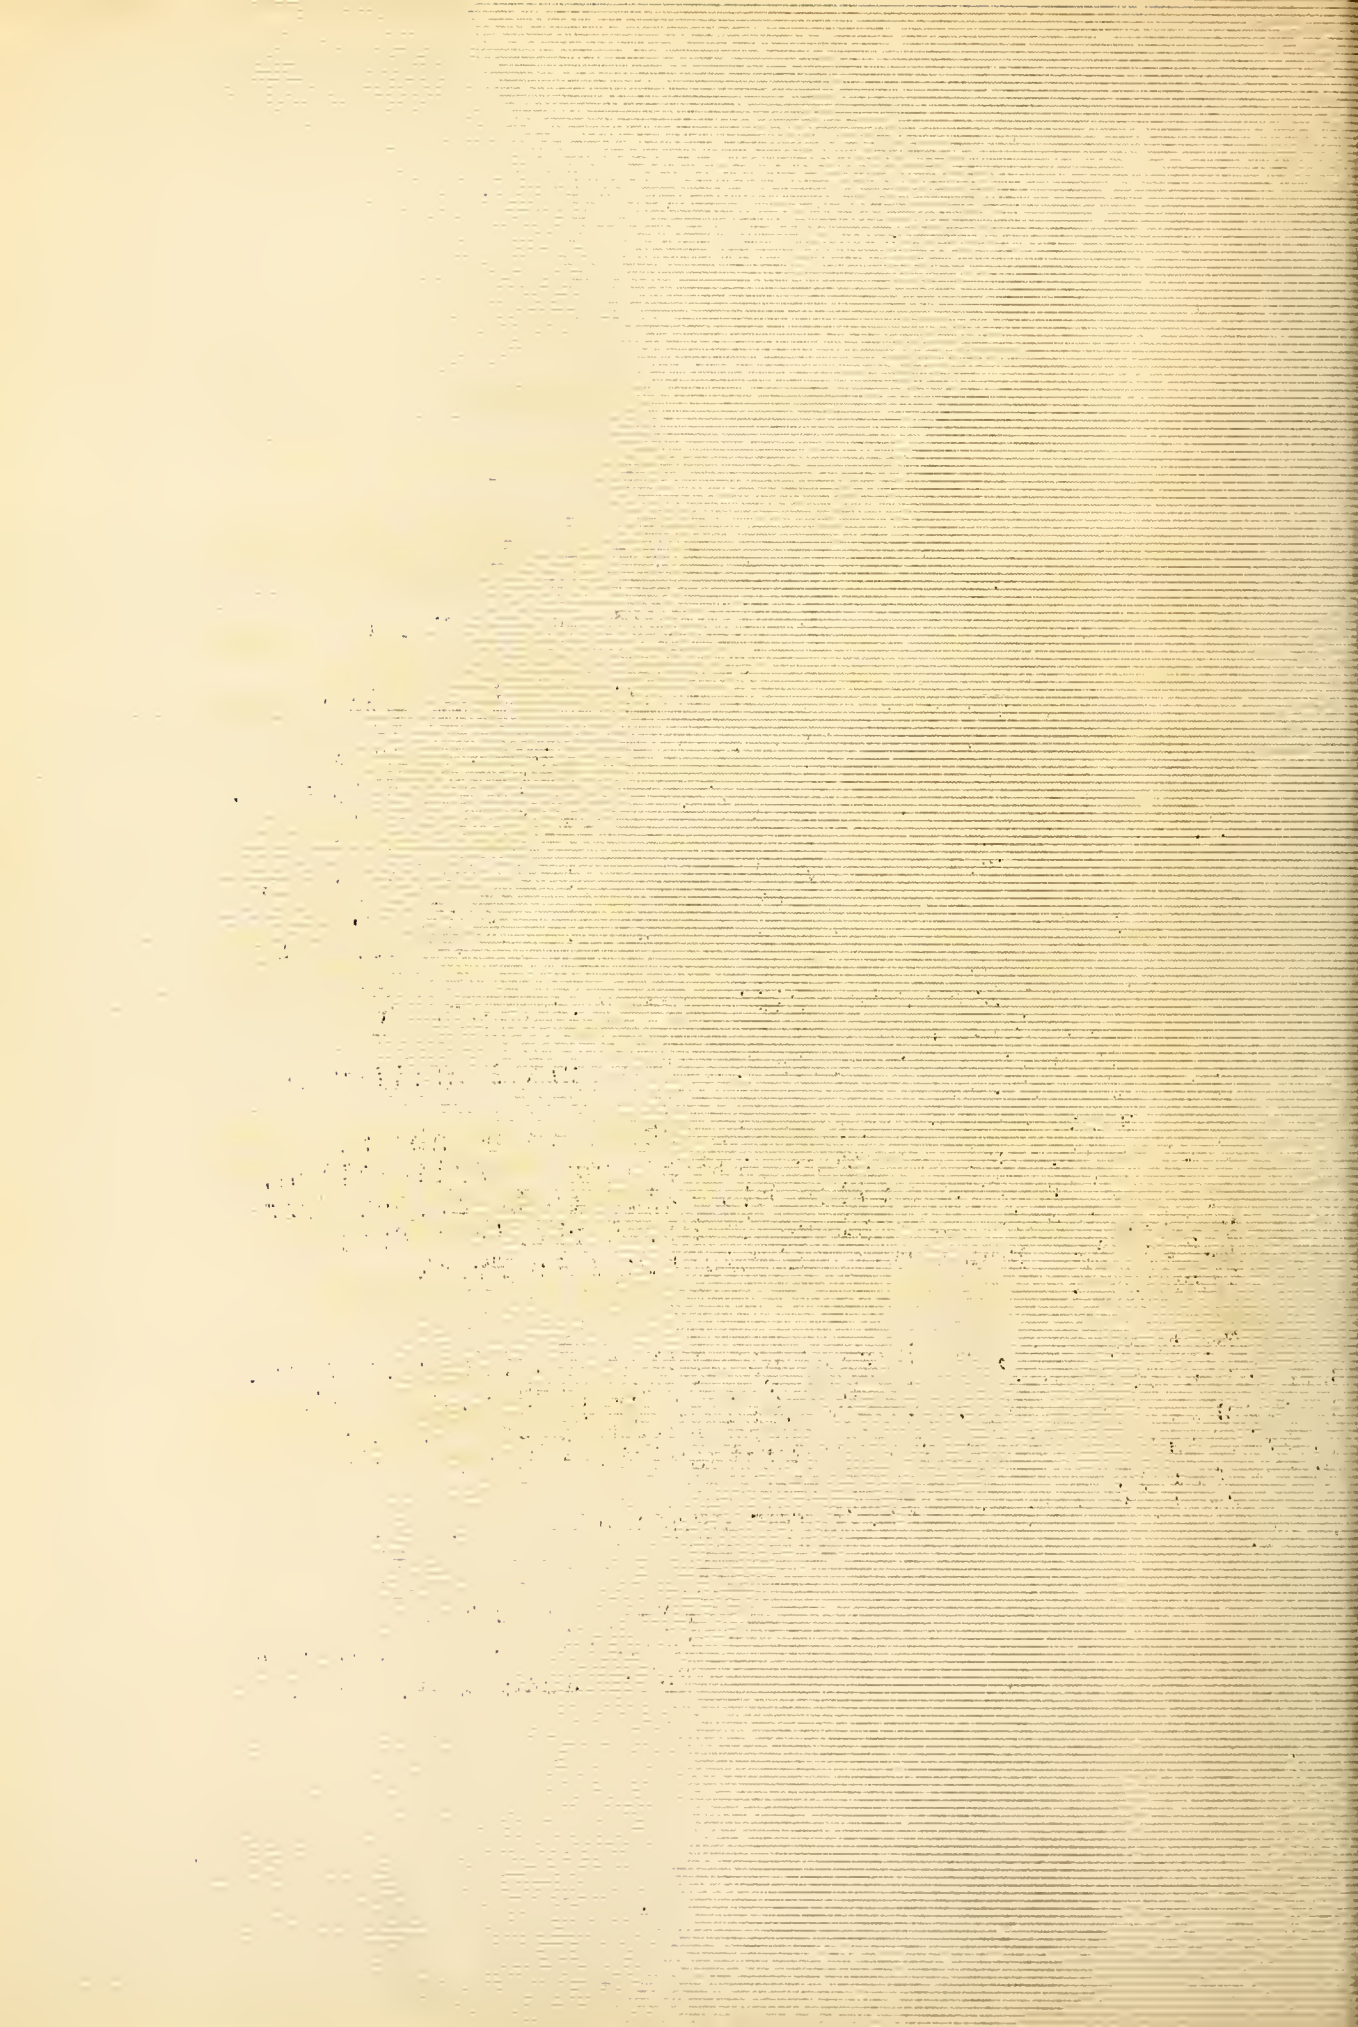

Marvin Sharpe wills his skill to be absent from class, and yet make good grades to Arlie Allen.

Robert Swink wills his skill to be absent from class, keeping his place in Mr. Barker's office (where he spends most of his time) to Frank Thompson.

In testimony, we hereby appoint as executor of this, our last will and testament, Mr. J. R. Barker, with the assurance that anyone failing to abide by one of the provisions will be severely punished by taking French twice daily.

We do hereby subscribe our names and affix our seal.

A Three-Act Play by Jay Tabias was presented in April, 1948 by the Seniors.

The play centers around Larry Elliott, young broder thinking he is becoming guardian of a small boy, is jolted to find he has taken a girl to raise, seventeen and pretty. Charolotte is called Charlie, hence the error. Why the jolt? Well Larry is engaged to the impetuous Vivian Smyth-Kersey. And is furthur henridden by a snobbish aunt. To have another female in the house delights him not. Neither does it delight Vivian nor the aunt. Charlie arrives from Arkansas accompanied by Uncle Aleck Twiggs. She starts calling Larry "Papa". Well, really, it was solid fun all the way through and wound up with a surprise ending.

Class Prophecy

Last night as I sat thinking of the class reunion we hope to enjoy together in the future, I found myself imagining the results, if at some given date, say two years from now, every member of the class should be too busy to attend the reunion. That would be very discouraging to the chairman of the committee unless she also was too busy to attend.

How interesting it would be, if on the day of the reunion each absent sent a telegram in which was stated the sender's occupation and reason for absence. How interesting it would be if these telegrams were collected in a little book and passed about so that all the class members might get first hand information about the others. I became so engrossed with the idea that I even pictured to myself the exact wording of the telegrams the various people would send.

I'm a farmer's wife. Can't come because we're busy picking tobacco worms.

Rena Lindsey

I wonder if they raise shorthorns? I never can remember whether they are cows or turnips, but they probably raise them anyway.

I am an usher at Lowe's Palace. Only way to see all the shows.

Margarett Myrd

She probably enjoys the picture the tenth time she sees it as well as the first. There's a girl who really enjoys her work.

I am a nurse. Can't get off duty tonight. The patients are too fussy about the bad service. I shall give them bad service for the next week.

Wanda Dixon

Those poor patients. How they will suffer for this. You remember she never did let anyone impose on her.

I am owner and operator of a Laundry. Worker's are sick, so I will have to do the work. Will be unable to come.

John R. Watkins

Still trying to run a laundry, Heaven help those people whose clothes he cleans.

I am instructor in plain and fancy golf. Give bridge and painting lessons to spectators between golfing effort. My dancing class tonight keeps me from attending reunion.

Betty Mae Allen

[The text on this page is extremely faint and illegible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a list or series of entries, possibly containing names and dates, but the characters are too light to transcribe accurately.]

She always was most industrious person in class. Surely she doesn't waste her mornings. Perhaps she takes in wrestling or gives boxing lessons.

I am a model for a large clothing firm. Having a big fashion show next week. Can't come because must lose ten pounds by then.

Frances Riley

Evidently she's as careful as ever about that diet she always carried around.

I am a secretary of a large automobile firm. Expecting a new shipment of cars tonight, Will be unable to attend reunion.

Louise Humphries

She still is a car lover, I see. I wonder if it is a shipment of convertibles they're expecting.

I am an Architect. Designing Filling Stations and Halls of Fame for the Government. Working over-time at big pay.

Robert Swink

If he works at all he is getting big pay. What he receives for over-time is beyond my imagination. The Government has my sympathy.

I am unable to attend tonight. Doing a masterpiece of him. Artist are always busy.

Pug Simpson

I always knew she would be a success. I knew though that there would be a boy involved in her work.

I am private secretary to the big boss of a large firm. He was born crazy and had a relapse. Won't give me time off to come to the reunion. I shall write all his letters backward for a week.

Margaret Baker

The poor man. What she'll do to his correspondence. It won't be hard for her to type backward if she still types the way she did during typing class.

Am a lady mizer. Take in House Cleaning and furnaces to tend. Can't come; my busy night!

Arlies Phillips

Ambition, But far too fond of jewelry.

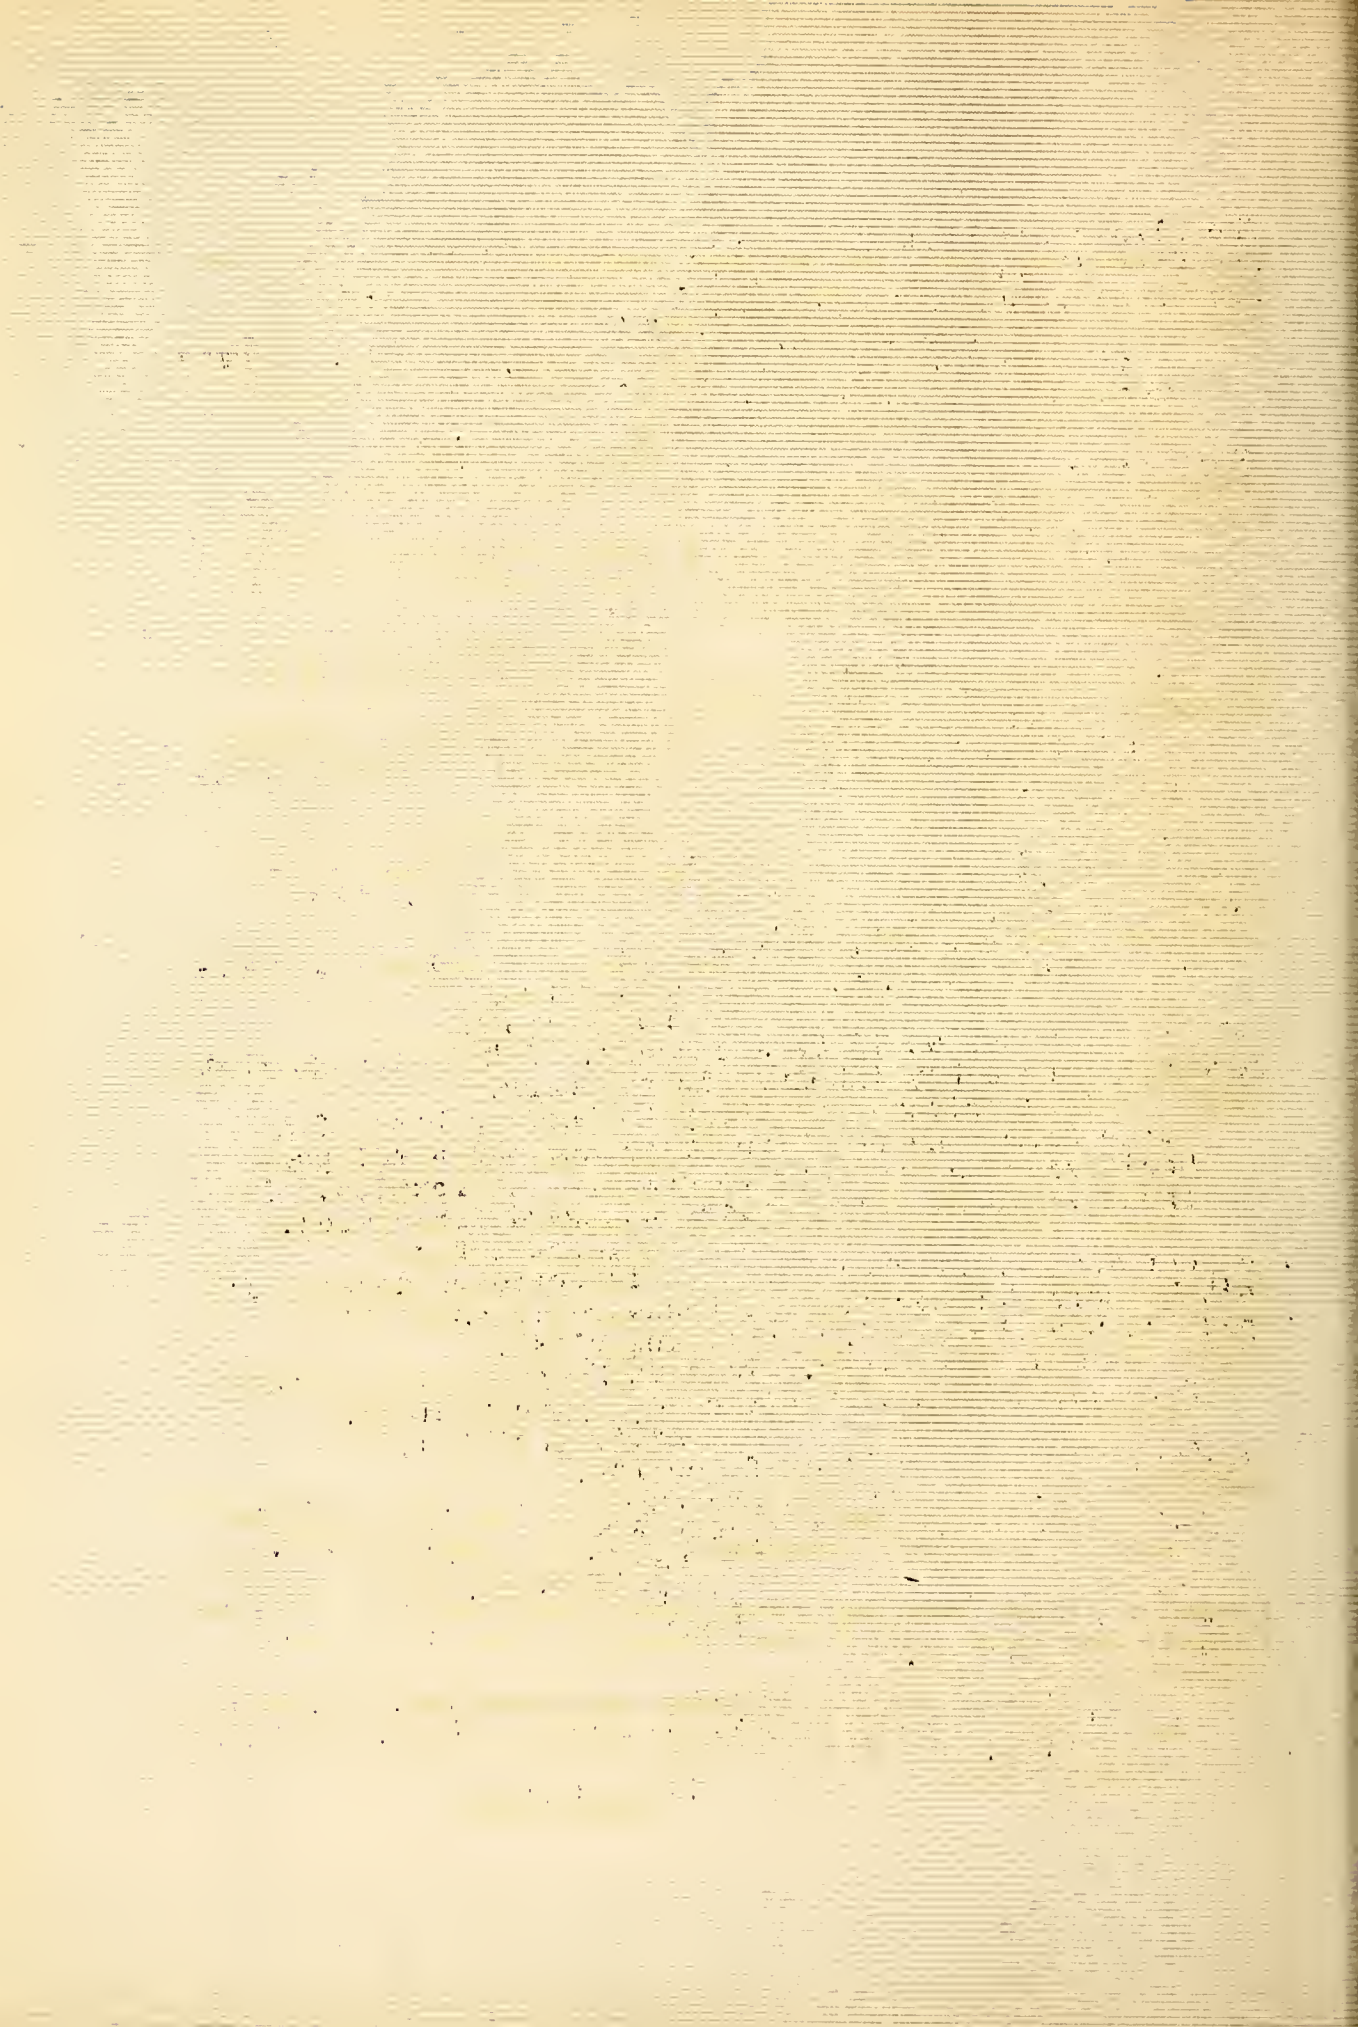

Am a Department Store buyer. Reunion conflicts with my dancing engagement for Heel and Toe Club.

Dorothy Stout

I wonder if her dancing engagements conflict with her boy friends and good times? But I doubt if anything could interfere with those.

They keep us telephone operators busy. The White House is in an uproar because of the president's resignation.

Peggy Coble

I hope she doesn't get the wires crossed up as badly as she did her fingers while typing.

Sorry, unable to come. Busy conducting and lecturing on points of interest on a nonstop, look, and listen tour of Washington, D. C.

Leone Bradley

She must have enjoyed her trip to Washington much more than we realized, to still be touring it.

Civil Engineer. Tunneling Rockies to shorten trip for Hollywood Commuters.

Arthur Makin

You notice Arthur used just ten words and no more. Careful as ever; but I bet it is a good tunnel.

Am a Chautauqua Lecturer on "Beauties of Nature" and "The Value of a Smile." So sorry can't come; the "Smile" due tonight.

Anne May

Wonder where she learned about the beauties of nature. When we last saw her she didn't know parsley from peppermint or toads from tadpoles. She must have been doing a lot of reading.

Husband expecting important business men for dinner tonight. Will be unable to attend.

Bobbie Cheek

She always did like to entertain guest, especially men guest.

Two weeks behind in designing airplanes. Unable to come. I must work tonight.

Kenneth Jeffreys

Hasn't changed a bit. He's behind as usual with his work.

I hate to be left out but car salesmen don't have much time to themselves.

Buddy Goss

I might have known he would have something to do with cars.

Designer. Must finish dresses to be modeled by Miss Frances Riley next week. Unable to attend.

Deannie Keck

Well Frances and Deannie are still together. I wonder if Dot is with them.

I am busy on a portrait tonight of my future wife. I will be unable to attend the reunion.

Marvin C. Sharpe

My but he must have changed. I remember when we were in school, he would hardly speak to a girl.

Next I felt someone nudge me. It was my maid, who informed me that it was getting late and I had better finish my designing and go to bed.

Deannie Keck-Prophetess

Junior History

We started our Junior Class out with twenty-four on roll. One dropped out to get married, and the others fell by the wayside.

During the month of October, we had our magazine campaign to raise money for our Junior-Senior Banquet. We sold $315.00 of magazines. Jimmy Best sold the greatest amount ($57.75) and Mary Ella Watkins sold the next ($51.35).

On December 6 our history class made a tour of Raleigh. We were among the thousands who saw the Freedom Train, after standing in line two hours. We visited the Capitol, Museum, Art Gallery, and the Blind School.

As I write this, we are in the midst of preparing for our Junior-Senior Banquet. It is to be held at the Alamance Hotel March 27.

We pride ourselves in our selection of our class officers this year. President, Arlie Allen; vice-president, Janet Bradley; secretary, Peggy Fogleman; and treasurer, Joe Allen.

Many of our boys and girls have taken part in all of our basketball games. We are really looking forward to being to "Dignified" Seniors of Haw River High next year.

Sophomore History

On September the third 1947 twenty nine lively looking boys and girls entered the doors of the tenth grade for a new year of work.

To their surprise they found not Miss Betty Sue Lloyd but Mrs. Bill Whyte as their home room teacher.

AS the books were handed out the students weren't quite as lively as they looked at first.

We elected officers for our room and they were; President, Buddy McClure; Vice-president, Bill Wood; Parliamentarian, James Agnew; and Social Chairman, Elvie Holmes.

For the King and Queen contest for the Harvest Festival our room entered Bill Wood and Betty Jean Dixon. Some of our talented girls entered the amateur contest.

Our girls were on the social committee for the Student Council Christmas Party. We planned and prepared the refreshments.

Our girls had the opportunity to help plan, prepare and serve the dinner at the meeting for the principals in January.

When the student council was formed S. J. Moore was elected secretary; Barbara Ann Smith and Catherine Newlin as representatives for the council from our room.

By the latter part of January we had lost three students; Mac McCall to the Navy, Buddy McClure and Nancy Way to work.

Now school is over we have done our best this year and we are looking forward to a nice long rest during vacation and another bigger and better year next year when we are Juniors.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen History

On September 3rd, 1947, 39 pupils enrolled in Miss Cates' freshman class of 47-48.

The officers of the class were President, Mary Ellen Brooks; Vice President, Doris Chatman; Secretary, Ruth Williams; and Treasurer, Sue Harrison. The annual reporter was Eddie Welch.

The Student Council Representatives were Sue Harrison, Mary Ellen Brooks, and Eddie Welch who was also treasurer.

During the year, Mrs. W. J. Pearson and Mr. Y. C. Williams, the grade parents, gave a weiner roast for us on October 28.

Two boys and seven girls participated in basketball activities. There were three cheer leaders, Doris Chatman, Ruth Williams, and Peggy Leach from the ninth grade.

The dramatic production of the class was a chapel program entitled "Midge Goes to the Movies," a very funny presentation.

The class representative to the Junior-Senior Banquet was the President, Mary Ellen Brooks.

Donna Routh and Eddie Welch became members of the Beta Club. Miss Cates, the 9th grade teacher was the sponser of the Club.

Peggy Leach, Jerolene Kidd, Jean James, Betty Lou Byrd, Doris Chatman, Ruth Williams, Kay Pearson, and Edna Andrews were the members of the girls dept. of the 4H Club. Vance Smith, J. C. Chatman, Willard Clark, John Richard Sykes, and Eddie Welch were in the boys dept.

The girls' basketball team enjoyed a very successful season this year. We are hoping the team next year will do even better.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. J. R. Barker for unlimited patience in helping us to reach a high goal.

Our captain for the year was "Dot" Stout.

"Dot" Stout was top scorer with 185 points; "Meb" Byrd scored 148; and "Deannie" Keck, 113. They were the three high scorers for the girls team of 1947-48.

Anne May served as manager for our team. Rena Lindsey and Louise Humphries acted as assistant managers.

“CHEER Leaders”

WANDA DIXON - CHIEF-----

DORIS CHATMAN - RUTH WILLIAMS - PEGGY LEACH-----

THE HAW RIVER HIGH SCHOOL CHEER LEADERS WERE ORGANIZED INTO A CLUB FOR THE FIRST TIME THIS YEAR.

WE HAD AS OUR SPONSOR MRS. WILLIAM WHITE. WE HOPED TO CREATE THROUGH ORGANIZED CHEER LEADERS GREATER SCHOOL ENTHUSIASM AND A LARGER BASKETBALL SPECTATOR ATTENDENCE.

OUR UNIFORMS, WHICH WE MADE OURSELVES FROM MATERIAL DONATED BY THE GRANITE FINISHING WORKS, CREATED A SENSATION THROUGH OUT THE COUNTRY. WE FEEL THAT WE HAVE HAD A SUCCESSFUL SEASON AND WE WISH TO THANK THE ENTIRE STUDENT BODY FOR THEIR CO-OPERATION AND ENTHUSIASM.

Mrs Wilkins,

This is the truth & nothing but the truth so help me. You are really the sweetest & nicest teacher I have ever had. I only wish I could have had you years before. We would probably be lot better students if all the teachers were like you. Here's wishing you the best of luck in the future. Always remember how mean I was in class!

Love,
"Puey" Simpson

Mrs ~~Wilkins~~ Wilkins

You are a very sweet teacher, I have really enjoyed having you for my teacher. One main point I have learned from you is that "if you try to work a problem you can."

Love you
Margaret Baker

Mrs Wilkins

We have enjoy your teaching us this year and hope you will be back
